

BLUE BALL COMPETITION DECEMBER 2024

This year's blue ball competition proved another great evening of fun and competition. With 14 players turning out we had two teams of seven battling it out for the chocs. With almost all players winning at least one of their matches it proved a close competition with some great squash all played in the usual Christmas spirit. In the end the team of Kieran Savage, Simon Powell, Peter Hicks, Peter Strongitharm, Wendy Savage, Julie Commander and Mel Thomas came out on top to win the chocs, despite both Jonathan Parsons and Andy Marsh winning all their games. With mince pies and mulled wine to keep everyone going, it was a good end to the year.
